Boarding Information

What do I bring?

It is always best to avoid changing your pet's normal feeding routine. We therefore request that you bring food and any necessary medications. Customers are responsible for supplying enough of both for their dog's entire stay. Busters Happy Tails, Inc. requests all prescription medication to be in their original bottles. Please do not bring oversized bags or tubs of food for your dog. Instead, we kindly ask that you bag your dog's food by individual meal (not by day). When measuring enough food for your dog's stay, please make sure to include a little extra. Due to our guests being quite active during their stay, they have a tendency to develop larger appetites than normal. Should your reservation be extended and your pet run out of food, Busters Happy Tails, Inc. will gladly supply food for your dog at a cost of $2.00 per-meal. Please make sure your dog's name is on all food, medication and any other belongings.

Extras

We encourage a blanket, bed, unlaundered t-shirt, and a favorite toy for your dog's comfort. All extras will be kept in your dog's doggy suite and he/she will have access to them only during the night time hours. Please do not bring any irreplaceable items as we cannot guarantee their return.

Don'ts

Please do NOT bring food bowls. We provide clean, stainless steel bowls for all of our guests. Please do NOT bring any type of rawhide chews, raw bones or tennis balls.
